Every Train Station has a history

During the 20th century, the train circulated often in the Gaspésie: from Mont-Joli, it went to either Matane, Matapédia or to Gaspé. Along these runs it stopped in many different villages. The next edition of Magazine Gaspésie will be about these train stations and their history. At it's peak the Peninsula had almost thirty! Sites of homecoming and departures, these stations were places full of memories, and also important for mail and goods. This edition will trace their stories and architecture, as many have disappeared, as well as the people who worked there. You are invited to collaborate with us for this edition (no. 204, August- November 2022) by submitting a text by April 1st 2022. To discuss an article or propose a text, contact Marie-Josée Lemaire Caplette : magazine@museedelagaspesie.ca ou 418 368-1534, poste 106.

Effective December 11th, snowmobile owners are required to comply with SSCC/11 regarding their vehicle's exhaust systems, as provided by the off-Road Vehicle Regulation. The standard certifies that the exhaust system meets noise emission requirement. However, this requirement does not apply to snowmobiles manufactured before 2011!
Are liable to a fine:
The driver driving with a snowmobile whose exhaust system does not comply with SSCC/11:
The person selling a brand-new snowmobile or a demonstrator whose exhaust system doesn't meet SSCC/11;
The person who installs or has a silencer installed on a snowmobile that does not comply with SSCC/11 Standard.
The fines range from $350 to $500 for a person and $2000 to $15,000 for a business.
